

Distributor and Manufacturer Discounts for CFI Installers

The following discounts are only available for CFI installers who present a current ID Badge at time of purchase. They are available immediately and are offered through December 31, 2010 by participating distributors and vendors. Discounts more than pay for your certification!

At the time of this letter, many sponsors have not submitted their final discount for publication, but will be posted online as it becomes available. Check online at <http://www.cfiinstallers.com/membership/benefits.html> for a full list.
